Winter 2010 Volume 26, Issue 1
"Safety and Health Summit" is published annually by the National Safety Council, Greater Omaha Chapter.

Summit showcases the latest safety and health technology. It is YOUR best opportunity to meet, connect, and sell your products, services, and solutions.

Many safety, health, and environmental professionals rely on this event to further their education, learn about the latest products and services, and network with others in the industry.

The conference and tradeshow draw qualified buyers who want to reduce workplace incidents and make their facilities safer. In short, future customers who want to do business with you!

WHO ATTENDS SUMMIT?

Professionals:

- specializing in occupational safety and health, risk management, human resources, business continuity planning, industrial hygiene, environmental safety, purchasing, engineering, fire protection, loss control, government, education, small business management and related fields.
- from many areas including: Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, South Dakota, Illinois, Colorado, and Minnesota.

ABOUT THE TRADESHOW

Omaha! The best kept secret in the Midwest featuring: regional and international cuisine, Old Market shopping district, world class zoo, art galleries, museums, sporting events and best of all, friendly people.

Qwest Center is the best and most outstanding venue ever used for this event. Named Best Convention Center in Planners' Best Bets, Meetings MidAmerica magazine, the Qwest Center layout features beautiful, open spaces that allow all exhibits to be located together and adjacent to the conference meeting rooms. Conveniently located downtown within minutes of Omaha's Eppley Airport.

“Everyone at General Fire & Safety looks forward to the National Safety Council's Summit at the Qwest Center. The attendees are highly qualified and it gives us a chance to meet new clients and network with existing ones. From the tradeshow, speakers, luncheon and educational seminars, the Summit is supremely organized and well run. General Fire and Safety will continue to support Summit for years to come.”

2010 TRADESHOW FEATURES

- Immediate access to conference attendees
- Thirty minute breaks between seminars
- Special Entertainment May 19 and interactive exhibits
- Cash prize for tradeshow attendees
- Directory opportunities if paid by January 29, 2010

Traffic Builder Card

This is a great way to bring attendees to your booth. Attendees pick up a card at the show, and visit every booth listed on the card to receive a written confirmation or stamp. After the card is completed, it is entered into a drawing for a CASH PRIZE. All proceeds from participating exhibitors are awarded to a winner each day. Sign up for the card on your registration form.

E-xhibitor News

This informative, monthly e-letter beginning in February, 2010 includes Summit updates, exhibiting tips and techniques and tradeshow procedures. Be sure to include your email address, printed clearly on the registration form and add summit@safenebraska.org to your approved email list.

Lunch Option for Tradeshow Attendees May 19

Tradeshow attendees will be invited to make the Summit tradeshow their lunch destination. Exhibitors, take advantage of this tremendous opportunity to meet and visit with conference and tradeshow attendees during lunch, May 19. Get to know your current and potential customers better while enjoying lunch.

“Planning Your Exhibit” Workshop

Learn new exhibiting ideas and put together an action plan for success in March, 2010.

4th Annual Golfing Fore Safety

Grab your golf clubs and join us May 5th at Shadow Ridge Country Club for the National Safety Council, Greater Omaha Chapter's 4th annual “Golfing Fore Safety”. All proceeds will benefit your local not-for-profit Safety Council's “Safe Community” mission.

This is your chance to golf with your clients and over 100 possible prospects! Use this as your company golf outing. Please contact Brian Flaherty at 402-898-7352 or bflaherty@safenebraska.org for more information.

Centrally located in the “Heartland” of the USA, Omaha is the nation’s 42nd largest city. Since the days of its establishment in the late 1850’s, Omaha has served as a gateway to the Great Plains and as a regional service and trade center. Most recently, Omaha was listed as among America’s 50 hottest cities for business expansion and one of the top 10 Tech Haven cities in the nation. It is a “city on the move”.

With a population of over 801,000, the Omaha five county area has an effective buying income of nearly $21.3 billion and sales of $16.4 billion. The 20,500 businesses located in the metropolitan area include the headquarters of five “Fortune 500” companies. In addition, more than 50 million people live within 500 miles of Omaha in Chicago, Denver, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Oklahoma City, and St. Louis. This “overnight” market represents more than $916 billion in effective buying power!

“Overall, the Safety and Health Summit has a great turnout compared to National shows. The attendance as well as the quality of people that come to this show are more engaged than on the National level. The quality of leads generated through this show is great. I prefer this show to other National shows that we have attended!”

“We at the John Day Company always look forward to the Annual Safety & Health Summit at the Qwest Center because it affords us the opportunity to meet new and old customers and find out what is new in the area of safety. The show and luncheon are always 1st class and the speakers and educational opportunities are great also. Keep up the good work!”
